

Chung-Shan Junior High School

179 , Ningxia Road, Tsitun District, Taichung, Taiwan

Our Goal

Structure the high quality education

Devoted to develop individual potential

Train students to have the ability of facing life challenges

Our Environment

Satisfied curriculum as well as experienced teachers promote learning efficiency

Varieties of reading and math instructions, computer-assisted learning system, and themed-based extracurriculum stimulate students' interests in learning

Focus on listening, speaking, reading and writing in language learning; cultivate students' ability to think independently, reasonably and logically

Improve students' ability based on learning evaluations; provide students with sufficient knowledge to enhance their academic performance

Our Features

Best school principle: An experienced principle which has won various prizes and has a new and fresh approach

Best teaching methods: A lively active teaching approach combined with the multi curriculum will ensure a positive feeling for all students

Learning high: We provide all kinds of language competitions, a nature based curriculum, themed teaching speeches and field trips. Thus, ensuring a fun and varied environment

Recreational time: A wide selection of activities for students to choose, including music, dancing, chess and many more

Variety of activities: All students will be included in the annual summer camps, musical concerts, sports days, hiking and Christmas parties

School Motto

「Health」 - Students will experience success in a healthy and safe learning environment

「Individuality」 - All students are unique, learn in different ways, and should be provided with a variety of instructional approaches

「Creativity」 - Students will develop their full potential through an innovative and creative curriculum

